User's Guide

Hanging bracket   Magnet

Battery Cover

The bottom bracket

T1

T2

HIGH
LOW
OFF

M   HR   MIN   SEC   START
STOP

T1 button -----To switch to control the first set timer T1.

T2 button ---- To switch to the control of the second set timer T2.

M button ----- To set the memory time, return to the memory time.

HR button ------ To adjust "hour" value.

MIN button ----- To adjust "minute" value.

SEC button ---- To adjust "second" value.

START / STOP button ---- To start or pause the timer.

Countdown symbol
Stopwatch
Centisecond
Min   Sec

T1 in the control state

Count up symbol

Hr   Min   Sec

T2 in the control state

Timer Instructions - >>

* Press the T1 or T2 button to switch to T1 or T2 timer you want to use.

Set the countdown time:

1 Press the HR button to increase "hour" value, press and hold to increase quickly.

2 Press the MIN button to increase "minute" value, press and hold to increase quickly.

3 Press the SEC button to increase "second" value, press and hold to increase quickly.

4 Press the HR and MIN buttons to clear the timer.

* You can set up to 99 hours 59 minutes 59 seconds of the countdown time.

Start the countdown

* After setting the countdown time, press the START / STOP button to start the countdown, with the " ▼ " flashing; Press the START / STOP button again to pause countdown, , with the " ▼ " stop flashing; Press the START / STOP button again to continue the countdown.

* When the countdown is in progress, the corresponding button lamp (green) of the timer you are using blinks.

After the end of the countdown

* When the timer counts down to zero, the count-up symbol " ▲ " flashes, the timer will count up from zero, and the alarm will sound for a minute (if the alarm is turned on using fluctuation switch), and the corresponding indicating lamp (red) will flash for a minute.

* Press the START / STOP button to return immediately to the set countdown time.

Set memory time:

You can quickly re-use a time setting as memory time.

Set as follows:

1 When the timer is paused, press and hold the M button until the value flashes.

2 Press the HR button to increase "hour" value, press and hold to increase quickly.

3 Press the MIN button to increase "minute" value, press and hold to increase quickly.

4 Press the SEC button to increase "second" value, press and hold to increase quickly.

* Press the HR and MIN buttons to clear the timer.

5 Press the M button to finish the default time setting.

* Whenever you want to use the memory time, press the M button to bring up the memory time you set, when the timer is paused.

Use the stopwatch - >>

* Press the T1 or T2 button to switch to the T1 or T2 timer you want to use.

1 Press the HR and MIN buttons to clear the timer when the timer is paused.

2 Press the START / STOP button to start the stopwatch immediately.

* The timer is accurate to centisecond within one hour, and accurate to seconds after one hour. The timer counts up to 99 hours 59 minutes 59 seconds.

Control alarm - >>

The fluctuation switch can be switched to corresponding position to adjust the volume level of the alarm.

HIGH: High volume   LOW: low volume   OFF: Alarm off

How to place the product - >>

* You can use the hanging bracket to hang it on the wall or other places.

* The product can stand upright on the table with the bottom bracket unfolded.

* This product comes with a magnet, it can be attached onto the metal surface of the iron box or refrigerator.

How to replace the battery - >>

When the power is low, the display becomes dim or unclear. Replace the battery when the battery power is low.

1 Hold and push the battery cover towards the direction indicated by " ⬇ " to open the battery cover.

2 Remove the old battery, and put on a new battery according to the correct polarity direction.

3 Replace the battery cover.